

The Sacred Gaze: Part II

With

Fr. Terry Ryan, CSP

God made the world with differences. When we strive to be “like” others, to fit in, we may be denying the unique person that God made us to be. What we think we may want to be may not be who God made us to be. Interior prayer can open us to the experience of God gazing upon us as we truly are. We come to see ourselves through the eyes of the Creator. There may be different prayers for different personalities, but all prayers can take us to the place of silence and stillness where we encounter the unmediated experience of the Divine. In this second part of The Sacred Gaze we will continue to examine our encounters with The God who delights in us. Isaiah 49:16 I have inscribed you on the palm of my hand.

Saturday, April 27, 2019

9:00 AM to 12:00 PM

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Duncan Hall

1123 Court Street, San Rafael, CA 94903

Refreshments, coffee/tea will be offered. There is no cost, but a free-will offering is most welcome. There will be a 20:00 meditation at the end of the presentation. For more information contact Richard Olive at ollipops@comcast.net